SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITY

We are dismantling barriers within the arts and humanities. Through curated educational events, immersive historical travel, and academic scholarships, we are cultivating a vibrant, multicultural community rooted in historical accuracy, equity, and collective belonging.

Our community is made up of artists, historians, sewists, and researchers who seek to understand and teach others about the past by researching, making, and wearing historical clothing.

Our organization is 100% volunteer. 100% of raised funds go towards our three initiatives: Scholarships, Historical Events, and Educational Travel.

Contact our Executive Director, Gigi Coulson, to discuss becoming a sponsor for this POC-led organization.
